EWI of Knoxville Pilot/Xinergy Golf Classic Raises $36,000

Executive Women International of Knoxville (EWI) hosted its 15th Annual Pilot/Xinergy Golf Classic June 7th at Gettysvue Country Club. Funds raised totaled $36,000 with over $25,000 going to Knox Youth Sports and the balance to the EWI scholarship funds.

L to R: EWI Golf Chair, Valorie Beers; Wayne Christensen, Executive Director & Program Director of Knox Youth Sports; EWI Knoxville Chapter President, Sandy Richards

EWI awards scholarships each year to local area high school juniors and to adult students who are in a variety of transitional education situations.

Sandy Richards, Lattimore, Black, Morgan & Cain, PC, and EWI Knoxville Chapter President said “This tournament is the “community” part of the EWI core purpose. The funds we raise through this tournament support 250 special-needs children in the Knox Youth Sports Challenger program in addition to the EWI scholarship and Adult Students in Scholastic Transition programs. On behalf of Knox Youth Sports and the EWI scholarship programs, we thank all our sponsors for their support.”
